A WORD FROM THE STAFF

Spring is finally here! And with less than three months left in our 25th anniversary year, the Fund for Southern Communities would like to take a moment to celebrate and share with you our recent activity. Since the beginning of this fiscal year, we have awarded over $390,000 to 65 organizations through several significant programs. In this newsletter we have listed our grantee partners of the Katrina Justice Fund, the General Grants Cycle, the Media Justice Initiative, the Reclaim Our Vote Initiative and Donor Advised Funds. Now that's something to write home about! Check them out and tell us what you think. We always look forward to hearing from our stakeholders and friends.

It's been a wonderful 25 years made successful by grantee partners, donors, board members, Grants Committee members, staff and past Torchbearer Award recipients. In February we commemorated the anniversary in Atlanta with a reception. Additionally, we had an event in Columbia, SC in February, at which supporters and grantee partners in SC attended a reception and stage performance at Trustus Theater. Looking ahead, we will host several functions in North Carolina in order to have fellowship and feedback with our donors and grantee partners there. All in all, we look forward to continuing the FSC tradition with you in the years to come.

NC Latino Coalition

GRANTEE SPOTLIGHT: NC LATINO COALITION

2006-2007 General Cycle grantee, the NC Latino Coalition is a non-partisan nonprofit network of organizations dedicated to building the capacity of low income Latinos and their institutions to jointly resolve community problems while strengthening their collective power and visibility in North Carolina. Member organizations have access to organizing technical assistance and leadership development trainings aimed to building capacity. They provide technical assistance to grassroots Latino organizations; create spaces for leaders to get together; develop skills and connections of grassroots team leaders; and build partnerships with multiracial coalition efforts in NC.

UNITED STATES SOCIAL FORUM

The Fund for Southern Communities encourages you to register and attend the United States Social Forum (USSF) being held in Atlanta from June 27, 2007 through July 1, 2007. But what is the USSF? The USSF is the United States' version of the World Social Forum and signifies our country's official participation in the Global Justice Movement (GJM). The concept of the Social Forum materializes as a large-scale gathering, activity and discussion space for individuals and organizations concerned with creating a just world. It serves as a powerful opportunity to harness both the energy of seasoned activists as well as build on the growing consciousness of the world community – but at the grassroots level. By offering this space for concerned individuals to reflect and strategize, the World Social Forum, and soon the US Social Form, is facilitating the movement for social justice in the following integral ways: by building in political strength, by bridging current inter-movement divisions, by gathering momentum and by creating infrastructure. United States Social Forum is an important next step in building strong coalitions of organizations, mostly led by people of color to address the multiple needs in disadvantaged communities.

You can register for the USSF or submit a proposal for a workshop by going to the USSF website at www.ussf2007.org. Hotels are starting to fill up quickly, so make your travel arrangements soon. The Fund for Southern Communities participated on the local Fundraising Team and we want to thank our generous donors for their support. We hope you will be able to participate in this historic, powerful experience along with thousands of other social justice activists.
